Children's Weekend at Old Cowntown Museum

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Children of all ages will find something fun at Old Cowntown Museum's "Children's Weekend" on August 4 & 5, 2001. The usual attractions of pony rides, wagon rides and railroad handcar rides will be free with paid admission. But, highlighting the weekend will be five performances by local magician Robert Long, better known at Cowntown as "Robert the Magnificent!" The indoor magic shows will be given at 11am, 1pm and 3 pm Saturday, and at 1 and 3 pm on Sunday.

Also featured will be crafts just for kids; children will enjoy making handkerchief dolls, button whizzers, paper boats and a sample of branding to take home. Hands-on activities throughout the Museum will include "bubble fun," schoolyard games, and spelling bees, to name a few. The Dixie Lee Dance Troupe & Varieties will feature programs tailored to children and music of the period will be featured at various sites. Cool concessions will be available throughout the grounds.

Admission to the Museum admission is $7 for adults; $6.50 for senior citizens; $5 for children ages 12-18; $3.50 for ages 5-11; and children under 5 are free.
